Melody Federico Appointed Board Of Senior Residence

River Edge, NJ - The Senior Residence at St. Peter the Apostle announced today the appointment of Melody Federico to the board of the Senior Residence at St. Peter the Apostle.

“We are delighted Melody has agreed to join the board of directors” said Steve Ramiza board President. “Melody brings a wealth of knowledge in the asset management and human services and has long been active with the organization”.

Ms. Federico, a resident of Wayne NJ is the Executive Director of Home Corp, Inc. an established and highly regarded affordable housing development agency in Montclair, NJ. “As the baby boom generation ages, we will need more and varied ways to care for them. The Senior Residence at St. Peter the Apostle is an outstanding and innovative model of senior care worthy of the high praise it receives. I am appreciative of this opportunity to serve” said Federico.

Federico joined HOME Corp as its executive director in April of this year. Prior to this appointment, she served as the Chief Real Estate Officer at NewBridge Services in Pequannock, where she led the social service agency’s real estate arm – developing and operating over 200 units of affordable housing for special needs populations throughout Northern New Jersey.
